NATHAN DEAL JUDICIAL CENTER
Atlanta 30334

Dear Visitors to the Nathan Deal Judicial Center,

The Supreme Court of Georgia is monitoring the status of the coronavirus (COVID-19) daily and working to lessen any impact on our court's operations. We are following updates and recommendations from the Centers for Disease Control, Georgia Department of Public Health, and World Health Organization. Georgia's judiciary will closely coordinate any response to the coronavirus with Governor Brian Kemp, as we do in any potential state emergency.

In response to the potential spread of this new virus, we ask that all attorneys, parties, and visitors to the Nathan Deal Judicial Center who have a fever or symptoms of a respiratory illness, or who have been exposed to a person with coronavirus, flu, or any other communicable disease, reschedule their hearings, tours, or appointments here. Our Clerk's office can assist you.

In addition, we ask that all visitors routinely follow the best practices for preventing the spread of infectious disease by sneezing or coughing into your elbow, avoiding shaking hands, and frequently washing your hands for at least 20 seconds.

Please let us know if you have any questions or concerns. We thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Harold D. Melton
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Georgia
