

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA

Atlanta January 13, 2011

The Honorable Supreme Court met pursuant to adjournment.
The following order was passed:

The Court having considered the motion to amend the Rules and Regulations of the State Bar of Georgia, it is ordered that the State Bar's motion to amend Rule 1-202 (d) of Part I of the Rules of the State Bar of Georgia regarding Emeritus Members, is hereby approved to read as follows:

Rule 1-202. Classes of Members

...

(d) Emeritus Members. Any member in good standing of the State Bar of Georgia who shall have attained the age of 70 years and who shall have been admitted to the practice of law for at least 25 years, five years of which must be as a member in good standing of the State Bar of Georgia, may retire from the State Bar upon petition to and approval by the Membership Department. Such a retired member shall hold emeritus status. An emeritus member of the State Bar shall not be required to pay dues or annual fees. An emeritus member of the State Bar shall not be privileged to practice law except that an emeritus member may handle pro bono cases referred by either an organized pro bono program recognized by the Pro Bono Project of the State Bar or a non-profit corporation that delivers legal services to the poor. An emeritus member may be reinstated to active or inactive membership upon application to the Membership Department and payment of non-prorated dues for the year in which the emeritus member returns to active or inactive service.
