

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA
Case No. S19I1025

May 2, 2019

The Honorable Supreme Court met pursuant to adjournment.

The following order was passed:

RAINES v. THE STATE.

Upon consideration of the application for interlocutory appeal filed in the above-styled case, the application is hereby granted. All the Justices concur. The Court is particularly concerned with the following:

Does a defendant facing a sentence of life without parole for an offense committed when he was a juvenile have a constitutional right to have a jury (as opposed to a judge) make the requisite determination of whether he is “irreparably corrupt” or “permanently incorrigible”?

The appellant’s notice of appeal must be filed in the trial court within ten days of the date shown above. Once the record is received from the trial court and docketed in this Court, notices will be mailed to all counsel showing the date of docketing and the case number assigned. The appellant’s enumeration of errors and briefs will be due in this Court within 20 days of docketing; the appellee’s briefs will be due within 40 days of docketing, or within 20 days of the filing of appellant’s briefs, whichever is later. See Rule 10.
